Partnerships | Zanesville-Muskingum County Port Authority (zmcport.com)

The Zanesville-Muskingum County Port Authority (ZMCPA) is the economic development leader in Muskingum County. This has been and continues to be made possible by the continued support and investments of the City of Zanesville and the Muskingum County Commissioners.

Since 1987, these leaders have placed a value on a sustainable economic development office and for that reason, our City and County are better places to live, work and raise a family.

The ZMCPA's mission is to promote economic development in the City of Zanesville and Muskingum County by facilitating retention and expansion of existing business and industry, the attraction of new business and industry, and working to create a business environment to support economic growth.

We are proud to partner with local, regional and state organizations to make the greatest impact for our community. Some of these include the Zanesville Muskingum County Chamber of Commerce, Ohio Means Jobs - Muskingum County, Ohio Southeast, and JobsOhio.

Contact our office to set up a site visit and learn more about what Zanesville and Muskingum County can offer your company. We're excited to show you all of the ways that #SuccessLivesHere!
